

Temporary Closure of Al Shaqab to the public

In view of COVID-19 pandemic and in line with government health and safety guidelines, Al Shaqab will remain closed to the public until further notice. We look forward to welcoming our guests again once it is advisable to do so. The safety and well-being of our guests and employees remain at the forefront of our priorities. Thank you for your kind understanding.

Latest Updates

Presently, only essential staff of Al Shaqab, including horse-care experts, are working on site to look after the health, safety, and nutritional needs of our horses. Horse rehabilitation is also continuing.

Al Shaqab remains operational, and team members are available to answer your inquiries from Sunday to Thursday (8am to 8pm) through e-mail: alshaqabtours@qf.org.qa or WhatsApp through this link: <https://wa.me/97433777517>

We will also provide updates through the Al Shaqab website (www.alshaqab.com) and our official social media platforms.
